

Dear Friends,

I'm a fixing to round up all the boot-scootin' cooks I know, to see if yeens might want to enter West Marin Senior Services' famous Chili Cook-Off.

Even if you ain't in the mood for cook'n, maybe you'd be in the mood for eat'n!

This here event is on Sunday, June 5th at Toby's Feed Barn right after the Western Weekend Parade. We've lassoed in some darn tootin' prizes for the winners.

Please drop off your heated chili (in a crock-pot), corn bread, or pie, at Toby's Feed Barn in Point Reyes Station between 10:00 and noon on Sunday June 5th. Judging starts at 1:00 PM ish. We will be selling your entries after the judging.

Proceeds benefit Stockstill House.

For more information, registration or to volunteer, call Chloe Cook at 663-8148.

We encourage early registration. You may mail this form back to our office or drop it by no later than Thursday, June 2nd. Late entries accepted until 11:30 AM the day of the event. Please have your registration fees with you.
